

From the Spring 2025 Michigan Public Policy Survey

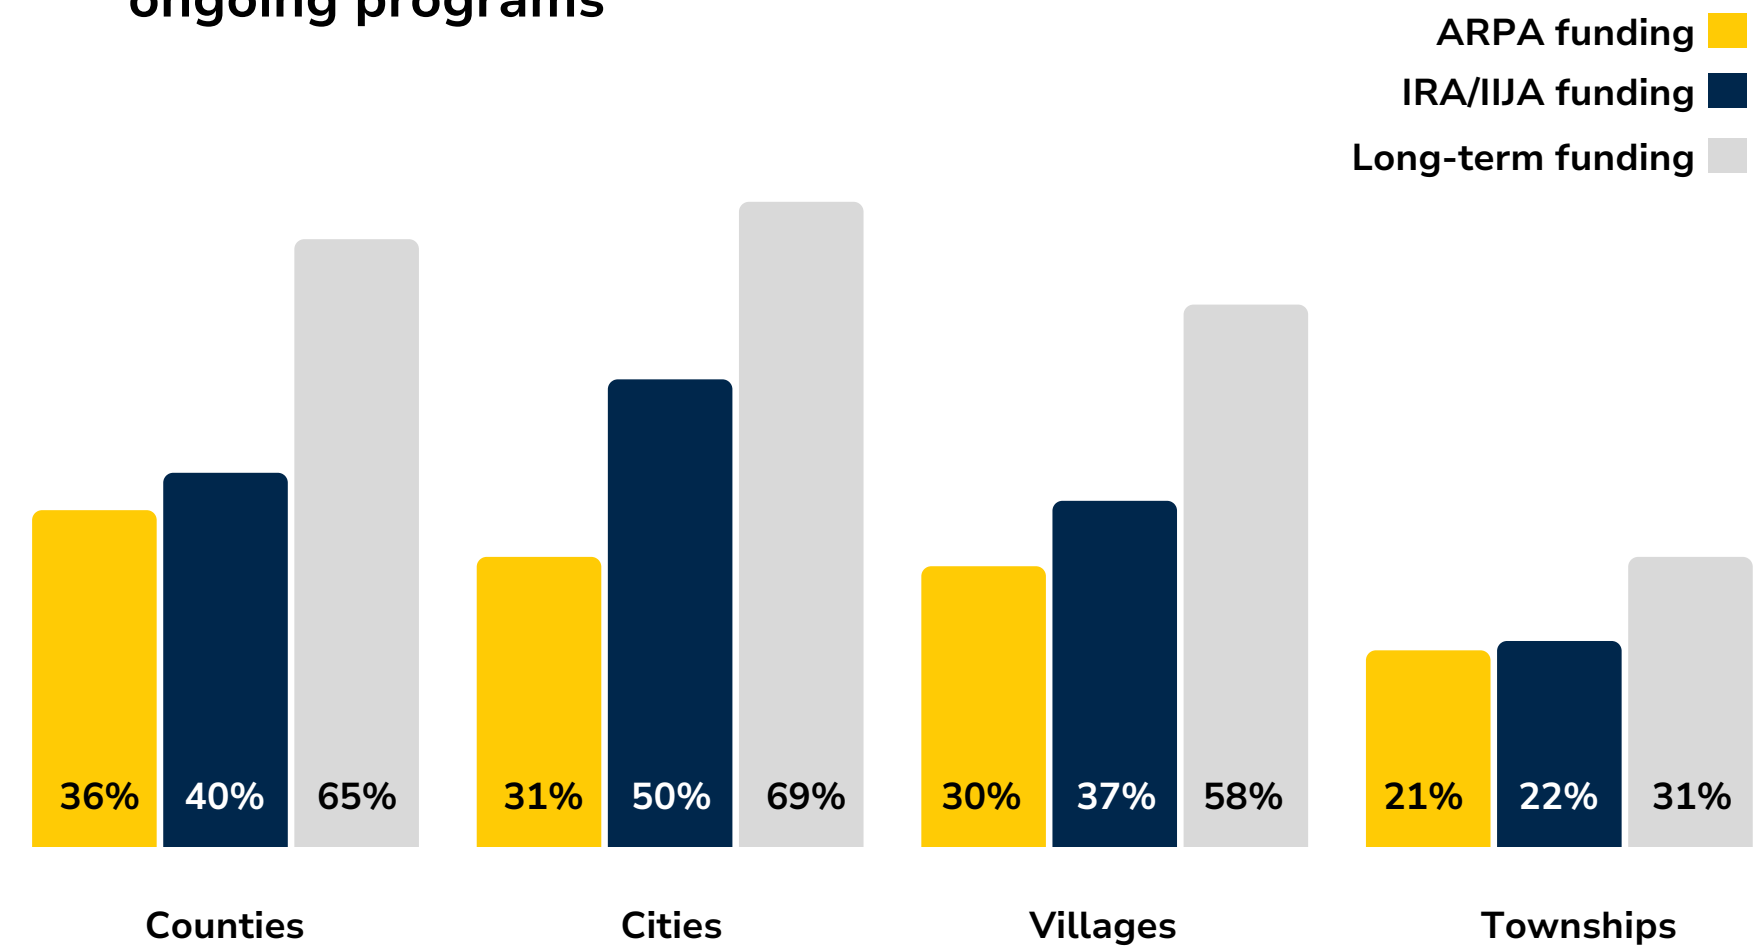

Michigan local governments' concerns about the potential loss of federal and state funding

1 40% of all Michigan local leaders say their government could face fiscal problems as funding streams dry up, but much higher for cities and counties

% say cuts would be a somewhat or significant problem

2 Michigan local leaders are most worried about federal or state funding reductions for ongoing programs

% say cuts would be a somewhat or significant problem